Bid Description:

Lapeer County - Strong Families / Safe Children contract for linking families with children at risk with appropriate community resources and social services. Families may call the Resource Center, schedule a face to face appointment or be seen as walk-ins. Appointments will be scheduled within 48 hours of initial contact. When transportation is a barrier, the facilitator may make arrangements to meet with the family elsewhere. Depending upon the family's needs, additional assistance may include help in completion of applications, appointment scheduling, translation services and basic problem solving. The Resource Center Facilitator may also advocate for families when warranted and follow up to monitor progress
